Hello,

I wanted to let you know that I just got a call from the Robert Group who is working with Universal Waste and they are canceling the event tomorrow. There are some things happening with the rates and they don't feel comfortable doing the event until that is resolved.

They will have someone at the venue on Wednesday to let people know it is canceled. If each of you could send out emails and post on social to let people know this is being canceled that would be great.

I'm so sorry about this. This was not the plan obviously. I will be back in touch once everything is sorted to see if we can reschedule.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

SuzAnn
